

The King Ludwig's Castles and Bavarian Lakes tour in September 2007 was a fantasy come true. The scenery was spectacular and the castles were breathtaking. However, the best part of the trip was the tour guide, Astrid Baur. Not only does she speak flawless English, but she is unfailingly friendly, helpful, polite. Every day she charmed us with stories and anecdotes about Bavarian culture and history. She is extremely well organized and not one moment was wasted. Having said that, I never, ever had the feeling that I was being rushed. The Landhaus was delightful. I really felt as though I was a guest in a Bavarian home. All dinners except one were prearranged. Each was in a cosy local restaurant where the food was, without exception, delicious and filling. All in all, Astrid took excellent care of her group. I would not hesitate to go on one of her tours again. One could not ask for a more pleasant and efficient tour guide. Highly recommended!
